

Enter, Monitor and Manage Production
Data From Anywhere, Anytime

Zedi Go the Mobile App

The mobile app built for production operations to increase your production, profits and sustainability from anywhere, anytime.

The Mobile App Built for Production Operations

Easily monitor and manage your production on the go

- View trends of recent performance while in the field
- Prioritize your work while in the field based on current alarms
- Automatically push data to other systems or custom reports

Manually input data, change settings and issue commands

- Demand poll to quickly update SCADA readings
- Save time when doing plate changes by immediately updating systems
- Create custom mobile forms to eliminate other field paperwork

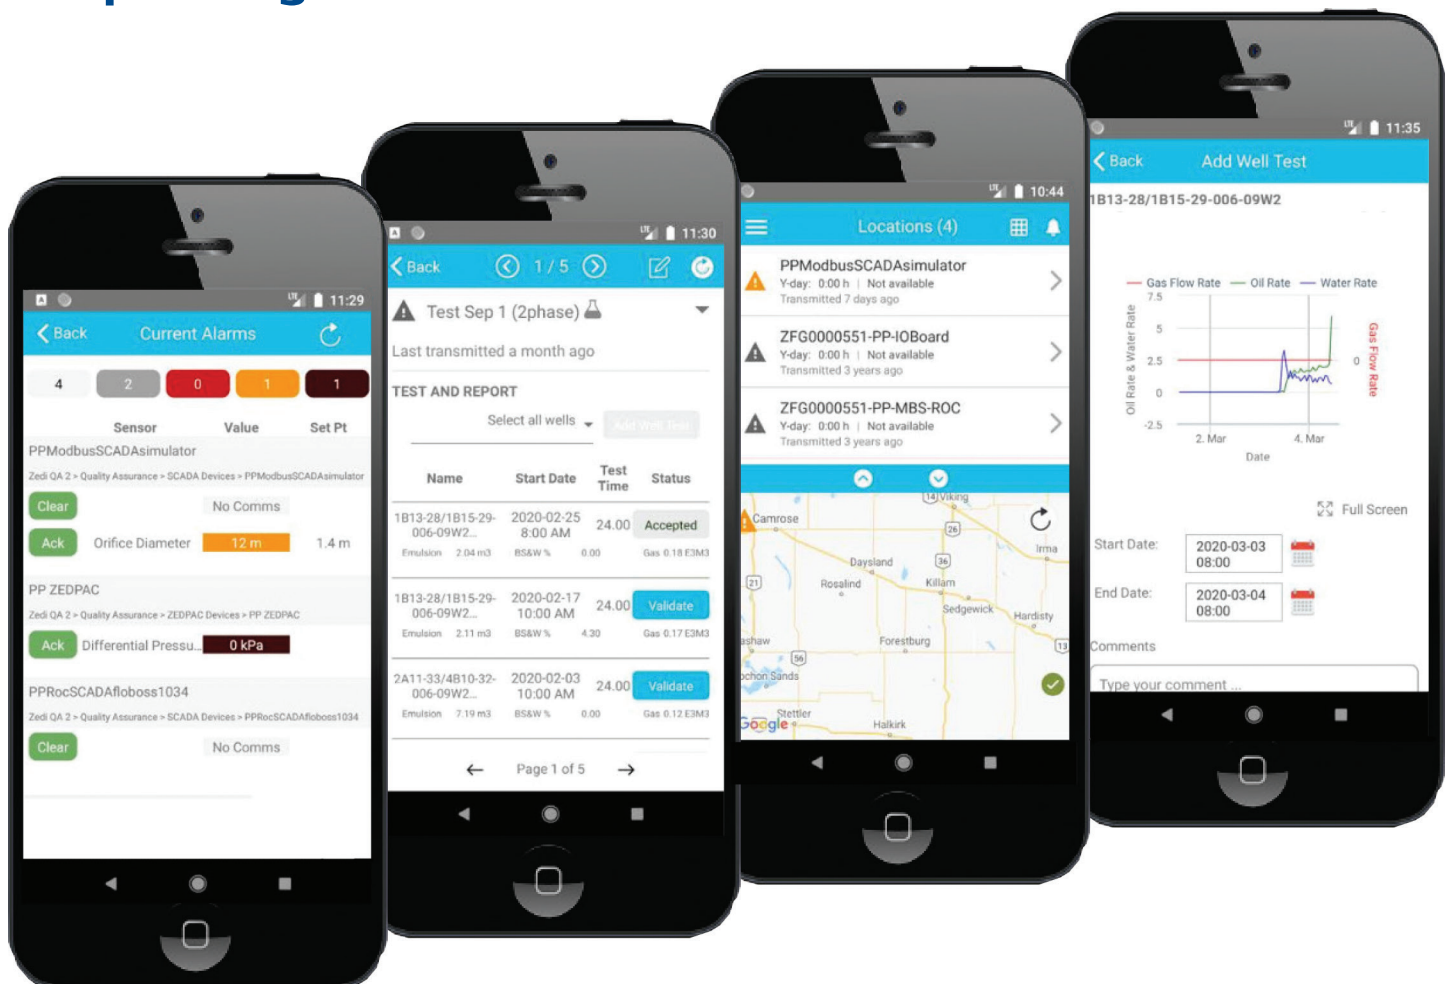

Simplify the work of recording chart estimates

- Enter data and update production systems in the app
- View chart estimates and actuals from Zedi TrueChart
- Capture chart estimates via your mobile device to export

Use the same system in the field as in the office

- Designed specifically for production operators
- Download and log in using your current Zedi Access account

Keep Go-ing... with Zedi Go

Mobile Solution for Data Entry

Our app allows you to easily view real-time performance data, analyze trend graphs, input operational data, change settings, issue commands, create customized mobile forms, and update control systems anywhere with the convenience of their smart device.

You can significantly reduce downtime, decrease production losses, save money, and time with alarms notifications.

Download our Zedi Go App through the Apple store or Google Play if you're ready to view, control, and modify production information from your mobile device.
