

Portable Well Test

Put the compact size and portability of our gas well testing system to work for you by using a single unit in multiple locations

With the compact size of the Smart-Alek, high turndown ratio of the eTube, and the enhanced benefits of our Smart-Skid, you'll get all the benefits of Zedi Well Test in a portable package.

In addition to meeting compliance requirements for non-metered wells, our portable gas well testing package will let you test the effectiveness of various well sites and providing the data you need.

- Tests that won't overwrite
- Meet and exceed regulatory compliance
- Accurate data and robust reporting features
- Measure a wide range of flows across multiple wells
- Smart-Alek's unique backdating function
- Easily transport our portable option to multiple wells
